

Hawker Pacific Asia appointed as Authorised Service Centre for Embraer's ERJ 135 and ERJ 145

SINGAPORE, April 4, 2017 – Embraer has appointed Hawker Pacific Asia in Singapore as an Authorised Service Centre (ASC) for commercial jets in the Asia Pacific region. The maintenance, repair and overhaul (MRO) facility located at Seletar Aerospace Park will provide line and base maintenance support up to C-level inspections for Embraer's ERJ 135 and ERJ 145 range of commercial jets.

"The establishment of Hawker Pacific Asia as our authorised service centre in Singapore is part of our plan to grow our commercial aviation MRO footprint to support the growing fleet of commercial aircraft in the Asia Pacific region" said Augustine Tai, director for Embraer Services & Support in Asia Pacific. "Asia Pacific is a very important market for us and we will continue to enhance our services and support network in meeting the growing expectations of our expanding customer base."

"Hawker Pacific Asia is honoured to be appointed an EASC for the ERJ 135 and ERJ 145, and we are committed to providing excellent service with exemplary safety standards to support Embraer's fleet of aircraft in the region," said Louis Leong, vice president of Hawker Pacific Asia.

This appointment expands Hawker Pacific Asia's OEM support portfolio, which includes being an Authorised Service Centre for Embraer's full range of executive jets – Phenom 100E, Phenom 300, Legacy 450, Legacy 500, Legacy 600, Legacy 650E and Lineage 1000E.
